

Northcentral University
Student Success Orientation
Support Team

Academic Support

Academic Advisors – As the main point of student contact, Academic Advisors assist students throughout their program with academic questions related to course scheduling, attendance, managing one's degree plan and progress, as well as policy and procedure clarification. They also serve as a support network to encourage and motivate you as needed throughout your studies. You can find your assigned Academic Advisor's contact information on your student portal or at academicadvisors@ncu.edu.